Incredible Brain Inflatable

Imagine an Incredible Brain Inflatable as an attraction at your next medical exhibition, charity fund raiser, or healthy lifestyle campaign.

What comes to mind when you think of the brain? Left/right brain behaviours, memory loss such as Alzheimer's, brain tumours, stress, or headaches. But, if you are tasked with informing others about the brain, how can you make it exciting? This is where the incredible brain inflatable comes in.

Exciting Events

Imagine the Incredible Brain Inflatable as the centre-piece of your next exhibit at a Medical Conference. Attendees will come to your stand just to see this unique exhibit. Then you have an opportunity to feature your product or service.

Or, why not use it in healthy lifestyle or anti-substance abuse campaigns. Additionally, it's great for Parkinson's, Multiple Sclerosis, Motor Neurone etc fund raisers. And, for those tasked with explaining how the brain affects us in so many ways, the Incredible Brain Inflatable makes the training or awareness campaign all the more real.

Are you having a Hospital fund raiser or opening a new medical or fitness centre? Use the Incredible Brain Inflatable to attract your crowd. For example, imagine entering a Hospital fund raising event by walking through the inflatable brain!

It's great for biology lessons too. Imagine having a class of students sitting inside or around the Incredible Brain Inflatable while they learn how it works!

Also, schools will love it as the Incredible Brain Inflatable comes with a Teaching Resource Sheet. It's designed to assist teachers to discuss the biology and other health issues of the brain. Additionally, one Teaching Resource Sheet is for primary school children, and a more detailed one is for teenagers and adults. As mentioned below, we also have Incredible Lungs, Heart and Colon inflatables. Some schools or organisations may opt to use all four organs. Groups of students or participants can go to each organ station to learn about it.

Alternatively, set up the Incredible Brain Inflatable as an attraction at your next fund-raising fete or healthy lifestyle or wellness festival.
