Product Description

Bubble Tent House Outdoor Transparent Inflatable Bubble Tent Hotel Bathroom Rent

Living in a bubble Tent gets a camping experience where you can make it whatever season you want at the touch of a button, a wood-fired bath tub and pristine sunset views as the curtain of darkness is gently pulled up across the valley and the first glow of sunrise gently stirs in the morning, it is little wonder that it is the little darling of our guests. No wonder our guests say 'once-in-a-lifetime' experience.

Tucked neatly on top of towering cliffs presiding over a stunning gully, Cancer is a dream come true for the outdoor enthusiasts who want to ponder their own place in nature. With secret lookouts, treasured spots of shades and on the edge of homely bush guarding our abundant wildlife of kangaroos, wombats, wild goats and birds. All while allowing you to marvel at the nightly sky in the evening from the tent or from the wood-fired bathtub, plug into nature at Cancer.

We're no strangers to glamping. From suspended tents to rooftop Airstreams, we've seen it all. Or at least we thought we had until someone introduced us to the Bubble Tent.

As the name suggests, this new kind of tent looks unlike any camping accommodation you've seen before. But these aren't available for purchase, if you want to try "living in a bubble" you need to head down under.

Living in the Bubble tent is about disconnecting from the world, but unlike real camping, you don't have to suffer in a sleeping bag. The bubble tent includes amenities of a hotel such as a bed, an eco-friendly bathroom with a compost toilet, running water, a shower and toiletries.

The bubble tent is conveniently close to national parks, eco and heritage tours and there's no shortage of interesting activities.
